WORKPLACE SAFETY COURSES

Consult HR Partners
Insightful thinking. Custom Solutions. Sustainable Results

In these new and emerging times, are you aware of all your responsibilities related to compliance with OSHA and other federal safety rules and regulations? For many organizations, getting the information and tools you need to stay on track and in compliance is time-consuming and expensive.

Insightful Thinking.
Custom Solutions.
Sustainable Results.

The Workplace Safety online training library includes everything you need to increase awareness of general safety practices and achieve workplace compliance with even the most complicated regulations.

- Accident Investigation
- Aerial Lift Safety
- Asbestos Awareness
- Avoiding Back Injuries
- Avoiding Exposure to Blood Borne Pathogens
- ARC Flash Safety: Unqualified Person
- Back Safety
- Battery Safety
- Bloodborne Pathogens
- Basic First Aid for Medical Emergencies
- Compressed Gasses
- Contractor Safety
- Crane Rigging
- Defensive Driving for Non Commercial Motorists
- Electrical Safety - Unqualified Worker
- Electrical Safety at Work - Unqualified Worker
- Emergency Action and Fire Prevention
- Ergonomics - Industrial
- Exit Routes - Supervisors
- Eye Protection
- Fire Extinguisher
- Fire Extinguisher Safe Use and Handling
- Forklift Operator Safety
- Forklifts and Pedestrian Safety
- Hazard Communication - GHS and your Right to Know
- Hazard Communication and GHS - What Employees Need To Know
- Hazard Communication and GHS - What Supervisors Need To Know
- Hazard Communication Refresher
- Hazardous Materials Transportation
- Hexavalent Chromium Safety 5
- Home Safety
- Hydrogen Sulfide Safety
- Job Hazard Analysis
- Ladder Safety
- Lockout Tagout - Affected Employee
- Lockout/Tagout Training for Authorized Employees
- Machine Guarding
- Metalworking Fluids
- Mold Hazards and Prevention
- New Employee Safety
- NLRA and Unions - What Supervisors Need to Know
- Noise and Hearing Conversation
- Permit Required Confined Spaces - Attendant